Governing bodies are responsible for ensuring that schools comply with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOI). Some aspects, such as charging are at the discretion of the governing body (see below).

It should be noted in view of the GDPR, any FOI requests from an individual for their own personally identifiable data is treated under GDPR as a Subject Access Request (SAR).

1. Introduction

Birchwood Avenue Primary School is committed to the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and to the principles of accountability and the general right of access to information, subject to legal exemptions. This policy outlines our response to the Act and a framework for managing requests. Guidance has been taken from the ICO (Information Commissioner's Office) which can be found at www.ico.org.uk

2. Background

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOI) came fully into force on January 1 2005. Under the Act, any person has a legal right to ask for access to information held by the school. They are entitled to be told whether the school holds the information, and to receive a copy, subject to certain exemptions.

The information which the school routinely makes available to the public is included in the Publication Scheme (see Section 5). Requests for other information, such as personally identifiable data is treated under GDPR as a Subject Access Request (SAR) and should be dealt with in accordance with the GDPR. While the Act assumes openness, it recognises that certain information is sensitive. There are exemptions to protect this information.

The Act is fully retrospective, so that any past records subject to Birchwood Avenue Primary School's Retention procedure, as outlined in the Data Protection policy which the school holds are covered by the Act. The DfE has issued a Retention Schedule produced by the Records Management Society of Great Britain, to guide schools on how long they should keep school records. It is an offence to wilfully conceal, damage or destroy information in order to avoid responding to an enquiry, so it is important that no records that are the subject of an enquiry are amended or destroyed.

Requests under FOI can be addressed to anyone in the school; so all staff need to be aware of the process for dealing with requests. Requests must be made in writing, (including email), and should include the enquirers name and correspondence address, and state what information they require. They do not have to mention the Act, nor do they have to say why they want the information. There is a duty to respond to all requests, telling the enquirer whether or not the information is held, and supplying any information that is held, except where exemptions apply. There is no need to collect data in specific response to an FOI enquiry. There is a time limit of 20 days excluding school holidays for responding to the request.

3. Scope

The FOI Act joins the Data Protection Act and the Environmental Information Regulations as legislation under which anyone is entitled to request information from the school.

Individuals can request to see what information the school holds about them. Requests for personally identifiable data is treated under GDPR as a Subject Access Request (SAR) and should be dealt with in accordance with the GDPR.

Requests for information about anything relating to the environment – such as air, water, land, the natural world or the built environment and any factor or measure affecting these – are covered by the Environmental Information Regulations (EIR). They also cover issues relating to Health and Safety. For example, queries about chemicals used in the school or on school land, phone masts, car parks etc. would all be covered by the EIR. Requests under EIR are dealt with in the same way as those under FOI, but unlike FOI requests, they do not need to be written and can be verbal.

If any element of a request to the school includes personal or environmental information, these elements must be dealt with under the GDPR or EIR. Any other information is a request under FOI, and must be dealt with accordingly.

4. Obligations and Duties

The school recognises its duty to

- provide advice and assistance to anyone requesting information. We will respond to straightforward verbal requests for information, and will help enquirers to put more complex verbal requests into writing so that they can be handled under the Act.
- tell enquirers whether or not we hold the information they are requesting (the duty to confirm or deny), and provide access to the information we hold in accordance with the procedures laid down in the request for handling information flow chart which can be found on the ICO website.

5. Publication Scheme

We will respond to all requests in accordance to the request for handling information flowchart which can be found on the ICO website. Please clearly mark any correspondence "PUBLICATION SCHEME REQUEST" (which should also be the subject line of any request submitted by email). If the information you're looking for isn't available via the scheme, you can still contact the school to ask if we have it.

If you require a paper version of any of the documents within the scheme, please contact the school by telephone or email for the attention of the Office Manager.

7. Exemptions

Certain information is subject to either absolute or qualified exemptions. The exemptions guidance information is found on the ICO website.

When we wish to apply a qualified exemption to a request, we will invoke the public interest test procedures to determine if public interest in applying the exemption outweighs the public interest in disclosing the information.

We will maintain a register of requests where we have refused to supply information, and the reasons for the refusal. The register will be retained for 5 years.

8. Public Interest Test

Unless it is in the public interest to withhold information, it has to be released. We will apply the Public Interest Test before any qualified exemptions are applied.

For information on applying the Public Interest Test see the ICO website.

9. Charging

We reserve the right to refuse to supply information where the cost of doing so exceeds the statutory maximum, currently £450.

10. Complaints

Any comments or complaints will be dealt with through the school's normal complaints procedure. We will aim to determine all complaints within 10 days of receipt. We will publish information on our success rate in meeting this target. The school will maintain records of all complaints and their outcome.

If, on investigation, the school's original decision is upheld, then the school has a duty to inform the complainant of their right to appeal to the Information Commissioner's office.

Appeals should be made in writing to the Information Commissioner's office.
